ER 62-3915/a

9 (41/1) 239

Col. Matthew C. Stewart Deputy Assistant Commandant U.S. Army Intelligence School Fort Holabird Baltimore 19, Maryland

Dear Colonel Stewart:

In the absence of Mr. McCone who is out of the city on a trip, I would like to acknowledge and thank you very much for your letter of 5 June concerning the on 28 May presentation made by to the members of the Senior Fereign Officer Intelligence Course.

STAT

We are pleased to get your generous comments about his performance and appreciate your thoughtfulness in information, I writing to us about this. For am bringing your letter to his attention.

STAT

Sincerely,

i i	Assistant to the Director	STAT
STAT	O/DCI/ rap(7 June 62)
	Distribution: Orig. & 1 - Addr)
	1 - AAB	Ĵ
STAT	1 - via DD/I w/basic	,
	1 - O/Pers w/cy basic for filing in Approved For Rease 2003/05/05; GARDP80B01676R003000130003-4	STA
	TD less he sie	7777

STAT

300280

Approved For Release 2003/05/05 : CIA-RDP80B01676R003000130003-4 Executive Registry 5 June 1962 16 Andrew Co. Mr. John A. McCone Director Central Intelligence Agency Langley, Virginia Dear Mr. McCone: It is a pleasure to express the appreciation of the U. S. Army Intelligence School for a highly beneficial period of instruction STAT at Fort Holabird on 28 May 1962 to members of the Senior Foreign Officer Intelligence Course. lecture was very well received by this group of STAT foreign officers. The students were afforded a keen insight into the problems of economic intelligence as well as the value of this subject in the overall production of strategic intelligence. The specific examples pertaining to the Soviet Union and Communist China, which the speaker cited to illustrate various aspects of his talk, were of particular interest. Thank you for making this presentation possible and please convey STAT to the sincere appreciation of the Staff and Faculty.

Sincerely,

MATTHEW C. STEWART Colonel, Infantry Deputy Asst Commandant